

Getting Started

First things first...take a deep breath and remember to have fun! It is important to get organized quickly. There are many details and information that you will need to keep track of. Find a system that works well for you whether it's collecting the items in a binder or keeping them electronically you will want this information in an organized fashion that you can reference easily.

Categories to include in your wedding planning.

- Your Wedding Style
 - Theme and colors
 - Anticipated Size
- Budget
 - Establishing who is going to be involved and contributing to and what aspects of the wedding
- Date Selection
- Location
 - Ceremony & Officiant
 - Reception
 - Hotel – Bridal Suite / Out of Town and Local Guest Options
- Wedding Coordinator
 - Level of Service Desired – full service coordination or month of?
- Wardrobe
 - Wedding Dressing & Accessories
 - Bridesmaids
 - Grooms Attire
 - Groomsmen
- Vendors
 - Florist
 - Production
 - Lighting
 - Décor / Rentals
 - Specialty Chairs
 - Linens
 - Charger Plates
 - Specialty Dance Floor
 - Photographer
 - Engagement Photos
 - Wedding
 - Videographer
 - Entertainment
 - Band

- DJ
 - Bakery – Wedding Cake
 - Stationary
 - Save the Date
 - Wedding
 - Transportation
 - Hair/Make Up
 - Wedding Flavors
- Registry
- Local Marriage License Requirements
- Gifts
 - Bridal Party
 - Guest Room Welcome Amenities
- Bridal parties
 - Shower / Luncheon / Spa Day/Bachelorette
- Groom parties
 - Golf/Bachelor Party
- Rehearsal Dinner
- Post Wedding Brunch
- Honeymoon

www.destinationhotels.com/weddings